Catherine of Aragon's 99 Miles of Dismissal
Virtual Mileage Challenge

Follow in the footsteps of Catherine of Aragon after she was dismissed from Henry's court in 1531.

Accompany this courageous woman as she was banished further and further away from court - to Hatfield, Enfield, Ampthill, Buckden and ending at Kimbolton.

This challenge comes with podcasts, postcards
and a beautiful finisher's medal!

Anne Boleyn's 45 Miles of Forbidden Love
Virtual Mileage Challenge

Discover a side to Anne Boleyn you might not know, before she caught Henry VIII's eye. Follow in the footsteps of this famed Queen and as she treads a less well known path.

This journey follows a younger, broken-hearted Anne as she travels to Hever and then accompanies her on her eventual return to court at Eltham Palace.

This challenge comes with podcasts, postcards and a beautiful finisher's medal!

Jane Seymour's 167 Miles of Bitter Rivalry
Virtual Mileage Challenge

We think of Jane Seymour as a quiet, meek and passive Queen - Henry's one true love. But is there another side to her?

Follow in the footsteps of the Royal Progress of 1535 from Wulfhall to Greenwich. Explore the theory that Jane accompanied Anne Boleyn and Henry VIII on this trip, and question when their courtship truly began.

This challenge comes with podcasts, postcards
and a beautiful finisher's medal!

Catherine Howard's 24 Miles to Death do us Part
Virtual Mileage Challenge

History paints Catherine Howard as a silly little girl who didn't quite know what she'd got herself into.

Silly or not, we'll follow this unfortunate 19 year old girl as she was seized from her home at Hampton Court before being taken up the Thames on a barge to the Tower of London for her execution.

This challenge comes with podcasts, postcards
and a beautiful finisher's medal!

Catherine Parr's 45 Miles the Grieving Widow
Virtual Mileage Challenge

Despite popular belief, Catherine Parr was far from a middle-aged frump by the time she became Henry VIII's 6th and final queen - the one who survived.

We'll follow Catherine as she retreats from Whitehall to Greenwich and then accompany her to Windsor for her husband's funeral.

This challenge comes with podcasts, postcards

Secret London Runs running tour

Every month, there's a different themed running tour of London for you to join. From the Secret Gin Run to the History of Medicine, Trailblazing Women of the East End, Street Art and the Uncomfortable Truth about the British Empire.

All paces are welcome - it's a chilled out trot through history, not a race.

Check out the schedule on the Secret London Runs website. I really hope you enjoy your tour.
